

PACE Awards for Innovation 09

2nd April 2009, Whittlebury Hall, Towcester, Northamptonshire

PACE are delighted to continue with the successful 'PACE Awards for Innovation'.

These awards are open to individuals, departments, schools, colleges or partnerships that have introduced innovative initiatives or activities over the last 12 months in hospitality training and development.

NOMINATIONS WILL BE SOUGHT DURING FEBRUARY 2009.

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES FRIDAY 6TH MARCH 2009

Three finalists will be selected for each award, and the winners announced during the PACE Conference & Exhibition Gala dinner – on Thursday 2nd April at Whittlebury, Hall, Towcester, Northamptonshire.

These prestigious awards are open to all PACE members. Winners receive superb trophies.

Details of the awards and their criteria are summarised below:

INNOVATIVE USE OF TECHNOLOGY AWARD

Sponsored by Education Development International

For example – computers in kitchens, hand held devices for completing questionnaires or the use of SMS for correspondence with students.

INNOVATIVE TEACHING AND LEARNING GOOD PRACTICE AWARD

Sponsored by The Craft Guild of Chefs

For example - innovative ways to engage learners with new messages in a very lively and imaginative way - used more for theoretical messages than practical.

INNOVATIVE LEARNING MATERIALS AWARD

Sponsored by Acquire Services

For example - booklets, stickers, cds, folders, intranet, social networking sites - any material used in learning that is innovative and interesting.

INNOVATIVE PARTNERSHIP WITH INDUSTRY AWARD

Sponsored by the Institute of Hospitality

For example - this might be a partnership with an employer, where the lecturer goes into industry, or the employer comes into the college. This award is looking for examples of anything that promotes a good experience with another organisation.

INNOVATIVE PARTNERSHIP WITH EDUCATION AWARD

Sponsored by City & Guilds

For example – this might be partnerships with schools that encourage young learners into schools, or college partnerships with overseas colleges. This award is looking for examples of anything that promotes a good experience with another organisation.
